

Biography

Name: Ian Naismith

Job Title: Head of Pensions Market Development

Responsibilities: Helping develop and implement individual pensions strategy
Helping develop company pensions policy
Supporting advisers through presentations and articles
Editor of Scottish Widows' techtalk magazine for advisers
Architect of Scottish Widows UK Pensions Report
Liaison with government and industry bodies
Speaking at industry conferences and public policy seminars
Internal technical support

Career History: With Scottish Widows since 1981
Previous roles include line management, systems and product development, actuary to small self-administered schemes

Date of birth: 7/4/1959

Family information (optional): Married with 3 teenage children

Interests: Church elder and lay preacher
Genealogy
Cycling

Any other relevant information:

Fellow of the Faculty of Actuaries
Member of Pensions & Savings Strategy Committee and Consumer Strategy Committee of ABI